TO BE YOUNG GIFTED and BLACK

1972

"THOUGH IT BE A THRILLING AND MARVELOUS
THING TO BE MERELY YOUNG AND GIFTED IN SUCH TIMES, IT IS DOUBLY SO, DOUBLY DYNAMIC
— TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED AND BLACK."

. . . L. Hansberry

Fifth Avenue High School
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Dedication

To Miss Marilyn Strothers, the most willing and ambitious sponsor, who has worked so endlessly in our behalf; we, the graduating class of 1972, take both pride and pleasure in dedicating this yearbook to you as a token of our appreciation.

We know that you have worked extra hard to make our activities a glowing success, which without you would have been an impossibility.

We deeply appreciate the guidance, support, and inspiration you have given us during the last three years. Thank you, Miss Strothers, for being the person you are.

THE GIFTED . . .

DENISE GALLOWAY
POET

During the year 71-72 P.P.S. Department of Pupil Affairs and Services offered a poetry seminar with Galway Kinnell as poet in residence. Denise was one of the students in attendance. At the end of the seminar, Mr. Kinnell selected the best work of those attending and a book was published of this work. "My Offspring" was selected as a piece in the book called Visions of Me. We are proud of Denise and her excellent work in the literary area.

MY OFFSPRING

Someone of something, which shall I call it,
I don't know, but it is alive,
I can feel it, Groping and struggling at the walls I have for it, survival.
Greedily it eats at the remains of what
I have already eaten.

Endlessly it clings to its protection
inside of me,
though it is living and protected by me,
it makes me sick.
It pressures me for the nourishment
I must give to it.

Moving about as if allowed, it lives
on day by day, while I suffer with
its movement,
I seem to grow as it grows,
As a flower blooms from its seed.
Finally at least, it becomes independent of me.
Eagerly it leaves me after all my toiling
of it.

Where did it all go, all I know is it's over,
as a day is to a hostage who has finally been freed.

Now we are all one, as I still feed
and protect it, as it passes on to surviving.

After all that here we are, me and
my offspring.
But this time together, and I know
this he who decided upon my adventure
for this nine months of a different season!

REMEMBER THE SHADES OF BLACK?

They say music soothes the savage beast. The Shades of Black played the most beautiful jazz you could want to hear. Sam, Oscar and Hercules will be missed as a part of the group. All you can say about them is RIGHT ON ...

THAT'S WHERE IT'S AT . . .

WORDS OF WISDOM

We are the new generation of Black youth. We know what we want and what we must do to get it. We will no longer be caught in the systems web of procrastination. For we now realize that we are the young, gifted and Black that Lorraine Hansberry spoke of. This realization will and must stimulate pride and the growth of a people too long oppressed.

NINTH GRADE GIVES CHARITY FOR SICKLE CELL
Last year in the middle of December the class of "75" contributed money to the research of sickle-cell. The money was collected through the various homerooms. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. English, teachers of ninth grade social studies, helped to make the event a successful one. Sickle-cell anemia, a disease which only affects blacks, is spreading all over the country. So take this in mind: "It is better to give than to receive." It takes only a few of your pennies SHOW

SENIOR POINT OF VIEW

FIFTH AVENUE HIGH SCHOOL

I don't really have any complaints about Fifth Avenue during my somewhat short stay. I entered Fifth in my sophomore year and now I am a senior preparing to go out into the world. If I had my way, I would like to stay at Fifth just for one more year.

John Wilson

In earlier days, Fifth Avenue had a bad name. Not the students, the school! The school itself didn't do anything. Which goes to show that it is we that give the school the name that we want it to have. As times changed students appear to have stopped pulling against each other and work together.

Chris Goines

My impressions of Fifth Avenue are good ones. They are ones which I would like to remember all my life. The people at Fifth are all warm and caring and are the kind of people I would like to be around the rest of my life. I won't be the first to say it, but like every school we have our problems. But to me, these are not the kinds of problems you run into at other schools. They are the kind that can be settled by the students within the school. I have learned a lot about people and the outside world right here at Fifth. These have been my best days. Too bad they won't come again.

Left to the above mentioned: by the 1972 Graduating Class of Fifth Avenue.

NOTE ON OUR THEME:

To be Young, Gifted, and Black is an autobiographical play of the life of Lorraine Hansberry. The play tells of the struggles, dreams and success of a black woman. Nina Simone wrote and recorded a song about the play. The words of the song and the essence of Miss Hansberry's work typifies our belief in our future.

TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK

YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
OH WHAT A LOVELY PRECIOUS DREAM
TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK, OPEN YOUR HEARTS TO WHAT I MEAN.
IN THE WHOLE WORLD YOU KNOW, THERE ARE A MILLION BOYS AND GIRLS WHO ARE YOUNG GIFTED AND BLACK AND THAT'S A FACT.

YOU ARE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
WE MUST BEGIN TO TELL OUR YOUNG.
THERE'S A WORLD WAITING FOR YOU
YOURS IS THE QUEST THAT'S JUST BEGUN.
WHEN YOU'RE FEELING LOW
THERE'S A GREAT TRUTH YOU SHOULD KNOW
WHEN YOU'RE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
YOUR SOUL'S INTACT.

TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
OH HOW I'VE LONGED TO KNOW THE TRUTH,
THERE ARE TIMES WHEN I LOOK BACK
AND I AM HAUNTED BY MY YOUTH
BUT MY JOY OF TODAY IS THAT WE CAN ALL BE PROUD
TO SAY: TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
IS WHERE IT'S AT, IS WHERE IT'S AT, IS WHERE IT'S AT.

TO BE YOUNG, GIFTED, AND BLACK
THAT'S WHERE IT'S AT . . .

No two futures are exactly alike.

Success is many things to many people. Often it's measured in dollars, but most often it's found in contentment . . . with what you're doing, who you know, and how you can help others. Whatever your success, your most important asset will be yourself. So that the true measure of success is your willingness to be you.
